

17th CARIBBEAN BAPTIST HERITAGE CONFERENCE
 Our ECBM churches in Antigua have the privilege of hosting this year's conference. It is scheduled for July 5-8, 2009. The theme is "Exercise Thyself Rather Unto Godliness" (1 Timothy 4:7). Keynote speakers will be Pastor Anthony Carter and Pastor Eric Redmond. This conference came into being 17 years ago under the leadership of our Presiding Elder, Dr. Hensworth Jonas, and Pastor Gabriel Ambroisine of Martinique. The conference is aimed at our pastors, but welcomes the participation of all believers. We are expecting delegations from churches in at least 10 Caribbean territories. The registration fee for foreign delegates is $125 USD and $60 USD for locals. The fees cover participation in all aspects of the conference, including day sessions, meals and materials. You can begin now to plan for 3 days vacation and to pay in your conference fee. The evening evangelistic services are open to everyone without the need for registration. All church members are encouraged to support the conference, even as we had a 54-member delegation to last year's conference in Jamaica.

Happy Wedding Anniversary

A WORD TO THE UNCONVERTED

Please notice, dear friends, that in the thirteenth verse [of Romans 10] we have the way of salvation set before us in the plainest terms: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." I remember well when I lived on that verse for many months. I longed for salvation; I could not see that there was any way of hope for me; I thought that I must be left out, that I was too sinful, or too hard, or too something or other, so that others might be saved, but I should not be. But when I read this verse, I did what I ask you to do, I caught at it; it seemed like a life-line thrown to a sinking man. I clung to it, and it became a life-buoy to me: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." "Ah!" thought I, "I do call on that blessed name, I will call on that glorious name; if I perish, I will never cease to invoke that sacred name." An invocation of the name of God, a trusting in god, and a consequent calling upon God and acknowledgment of God, this it is that saves the soul.

But I must get you to notice these words a little more in detail. There is here, first, a wide word, a very wide word: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved?" "Whosoever." I have heard that, when a person is making his will, if he wishes to leave all he has to one person, say to his wife, if he just says so, that is the best thing he can do; but he had better not go into details, and begin making a list of what he is leaving, because he will probably leave something or other out. Now, in order to make this

From The Pulpit...

-  Pastor Orvin Paige will preach at Tyrells at 8:00 a.m. on the topic "Consecrated to Christ" based on 2 Corinthians 6:14-18.
-  Dr. Hensworth Jonas will preach at Covenant at 8:00 a.m. on the topic "Knowing God's Will" based on I Samuel 16:1-5. He will preach at Central at 10:00 a.m. on the topic "Is Your Life Based On A Lie?" based on I John 1:6-10.
-  Dr. Jonas will also preach at the Joint Service at Central at 6:00 p.m. on the topic "Appreciating The Compassion Of God" based on Jonah 4:1-11.

will of God very distinct, he does not go into any detail, but he just says, "Whosoever." That means the black man, and the red man, and the yellow man, and the white man. It means the rich man, and the poor man, and the man who is not a man. It means everybody of every sort, and those who are of no sort at all, or of all sorts put together. "Whosoever." That includes me, I am sure; but I am equally certain that it includes you, you in the aisles who were never here before, you who are quite unknown in London, you who are a stranger and a foreigner, whoever you may be. It is much better to have it put so, without going into detail, because otherwise somebody might be left out. I have often thought that, if I had read in Scripture that "If Charles Haddon Spurgeon shall call upon the name of the Lord, he shall be saved," I should not have felt half as sure of salvation as I do now, because I should have concluded that there very likely there is, and I should have said, "Surely it did not mean me;" but when the Lord says "Whosoever," I cannot get out of that circle. It is a big net that seems to entangle all men in its meshes. "Whosoever." If I call upon the name of the Lord, if you call upon the name of the Lord, if the man who lies upstairs a-dying calls upon the name of the Lord, we shall be saved. What a wide word that "whosoever" is!

And then, next, what an easy word we have here! "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord." Anybody can call upon the name of the Lord. Everybody understands what it is to call "Hi there!" Have you not often used such a call as that? And if you have been in distress or danger, have you never called, "Help, help, help?" Very well, he who can thus call, let him call upon God, invoke his help, clamor for this mercy, crave his pity. If he does that in a believing way, as we shall have to show you, trusting that God will hear him, he shall be saved. So there is no difficulty here that wants a doctor of divinity to explain; the truth is put mainly in monosyllabic words: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." It is as plain as a pikestaff. Oh, that you might see it, and begin to call upon the name of the Lord by earnest prayer!

But here is another word, a sure word: "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." There is no "if" here; no "maybe" here; but a glorious "shall." Our shalls and wills are poor, puny things; but God's "shall" is firm as the eternal mountains. "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved," as surely as there is a God. The Lord has made no mistake; he will not revoke his declaration by changing his mind. "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Oh, that many would call upon his name...and find immediate salvation, which will last them throughout life, and throughout eternity, for "shall be saved" reaches a very long way, even throughout the eternal ages that are yet to come.

1. Great and mighty is He/Clothe in glory/Arrayed in splendor/Great and mighty is He/Let us lift His name up high/Celebrate His grace/For He hath redeemed our lives/And he reigns on high.

2. We will worship the maker of all things/Almighty God to You our voices sing/ Hallowed be thy name/ Hallowed be Thy name.
 You are the Holy One/ Father, Spirit, Son, King of kings and Lord of lords/ Hallowed be, hallowed be/ Hallowed be Thy name.

3. Search me O God/And know my heart today/Try me O Saviour/Know my thoughts I pray/See if there be some wicked way in me/Cleanse me from every sin and set me free/Lord take my life and make it holy thine/Fill my poor heart with thy great love divine/Take all my will/My passion/Self and pride/I now surrender Lord in me abide.

4. Turn your eyes upon Jesus/Look full in His wonderful face/And the things of earth will grow strangely dim/In the light of His glory and grace/Keep your eyes upon Jesus/And others will not take His place/But through every hour/He will give you power/'Til at last/You have run the straight race

5. Blessed be the name of the Lord/He is worthy to be praised and adored/So we lift up holy hands in one accord/Singing blessed be the name of the Lord.

6. O Lord my God in You I put my trust/O Lord my God/ In You I put my hope
In You /In You I find my peace/In You/In You I find my strength/In You I live and move and breathe/Let everything I say and do/Be founded by my faith in You/I lift up holy hands and sing/Let the praises ring
O Lord my God /To You I give my hands/O Lord, my

God /To You I give my feet/
O Lord my God / To You I give my ev'rything/O Lord my God/To You I give my life

7. Don't let my love grow cold / I'm calling out/ Light the fire again / Don't let my vision die/I'm calling out /Light the fire again / You know my heart, my deeds/I'm calling out /Light the fire again/I need Your discipline/I'm calling out /Light the fire again I am here to buy gold / Refined in the fire/Naked and poor/Wretched and blind/ I come /Clothe me in white/So I won't be ashamed /Lord, light the fire again

8. O how He loves you and me/O how He loves you and me/He gave His life/What more could He give/O how He loves you/O how He loves me/O how He loves you and me!

Jesus to Calv'ry did go/His love for sinners to show/ What He did there bro't hope from despair.
 O how He loves you/O how He loves me/O how He loves you and me

9. Let us adore/The ever-living God /And render praise/Unto Him/Who spread out the Heaven/And established the earth/And Whose glory is revealed in the Heavens above/And whose greatness is manifest throughout all the earth/He is our God/There is none else.

NOTICES

'NO EMPTY SEATS' CAMPAIGN

Most of us were transformed by God through the preaching of the Gospel at church. It is therefore important that we bring our relatives, colleagues, friends and acquaintances under the preached Word. Our new challenge is to turn over our vehicles to the Lord for evangelism. Let us all commit to not having an empty seat in our vehicles on our way to church each Sunday morning. It's the 'No Empty Seats' campaign. Don't let the enemy of our souls discourage you. Don't give up until you fill each seat in your vehicle each Lord's Day morning. Do it to the glory of Christ.

SATURDAY YOUTH EVANGELISM

All baptized believers among the Acteens and Royal Ambassadors are reminded of the evangelistic effort this Saturday at 4:00 p.m. at the three churches of the Circuit. Youth Counselors and any interested adults are asked to accompany the youth in this effort. Join the effort to rescue the perishing.

TYRELLS LAY -A-BLOCK FUND

All church members in our Circuit are reminded of our commitment to pledge and give to the Tyrells Lay -A-Block Fund. Construction has begun. We need to finish the building in time for the 17th Caribbean Baptist Heritage Conference. We do not have all the funds that we need. We need to pledge and give now to this project. Even the children need to get involved and make a pledge and give whatever they can. Let us make sure that our giving surpasses what we gave to the Covenant Lay -A-Block Fund. Let us rise to the challenge to the glory of God!

JOINT SERVICE AT CENTRAL

All members are reminded that there will be a joint service this evening at the Central Baptist Church at 6:00 p.m. Do not miss this time of spiritual edification.

SUNDAY SCHOOL STUDY GUIDE

Additional copies of the Sunday school study guide are available at the church office with the price further discounted by 25%. Take advantage of this opportunity to enhance your study of the Word of God.

ACTEENS CLUB

All members of the Acteens Club are reminded of their meeting this Friday, 20th February, 2009 at 6:30 p.m. at Central. Do not miss this night of great fellowship and a means to grow in the Lord. All teenage girls under 18 years of age, especially those in secondary school are encouraged to participate. Be sure to bring a pen, a notebook and a Bible.
